Literary Club

Dear Students,

We are delighted to share exciting news about the formation of the Literary Club!

Club Name: Literary Club

Purpose: Literature serves as a mirror reflecting the intricacies of life and human encounters. Echoing C.S. Lewis' sentiment, it is a source that enhances the essential skills demanded by daily existence, irrigating the arid landscapes that our lives may have become. At GGU, the Literary Club stands as a conduit, providing students with a platform to delve into literary masterpieces across diverse languages and nurture their own artistic prowess.

This club serves as a melting pot for students from various departments who share a fervor for literature and the arts. A collaborative effort between the Departments of Gujarati, English, and Hindi, the Literary Club aspires not only to refine the creative abilities of its members but also to kindle a deeper passion and inquisitiveness for literature. Its goal is to instill confidence in students, encouraging them to articulate their perspectives on the world and share their thoughts openly.

The Literary Clubs will cover a range of literary genres and activities, including but not limited to book discussion, Poetry recitation, debate competitions etc.

The list of students is as below:

| Sr. No. | Student Name | Department | Designation |
|---------|-----------------|---------------|-----------------------|
| 1 | Shifa Sipahi | English, FAHS | Club President |
| 2 | Mir Moinuddin | English, FAHS | Vice President |
| 3 | Patel Yashvi | History, FAHS | Secretary |
| 4 | Dashrath Manwar | History, FAHS | Club Advisor |

We believe that these Literary Clubs will not only contribute to your personal and intellectual growth but also create a sense of camaraderie among like-minded individuals. We encourage all students who are passionate about literature to actively participate and make this initiative a resounding success.
