SUMMARY OF EVENT REPORT

Introduction

On April 7, in recognition of World Health Day, students from GMERS Hospital Dharpur were posted at Banas Civil Hospital Palanpur. The event focused on raising awareness about various health topics, aligned with the World Health Organization's annual health theme. The students actively participated by creating and presenting educational charts on different health-related issues, contributing to public health education and community awareness.

Objective

The primary objectives of this event were:

- To celebrate World Health Day by engaging in educational activities that promote public health.
- To raise awareness about critical health topics through visual aids and interactive discussions.
- To provide students with practical experience in health education and community engagement.
- To foster collaboration between healthcare institutions and the community.

Key Components

1. Chart Presentation: Students prepared and displayed charts on various health topics relevant to the World Health Day theme. These topics included disease prevention, healthy lifestyle practices, and the importance of regular health check-ups.
2. Interactive Sessions: The event included interactive sessions where students explained the content of their charts to patients, visitors, and hospital staff. These discussions helped to clarify doubts and disseminate important health information.

GOKUL NURSING COLLEGE SIDHPUR

3. Community Engagement: The students actively engaged with the community, encouraging them to adopt healthier habits and providing information on accessing healthcare services.
4. Collaboration: The event was a collaborative effort between GMERS Hospital Dharpur and Banas Civil Hospital, emphasizing the importance of teamwork in promoting public health.

Discussion

The World Health Day celebration at Banas Civil Hospital was a significant event that successfully met its objectives of raising health awareness and engaging the community. The students' efforts in creating informative charts and conducting interactive sessions were well-received by the hospital staff and visitors. This experience not only enhanced the students' understanding of public health issues but also emphasized the role of healthcare professionals in educating the community.

The event highlighted the importance of continued public health education and the need for such initiatives to be regularly conducted. By participating in this event, the students gained valuable skills in health communication and community outreach, which are essential in their future careers as healthcare providers.

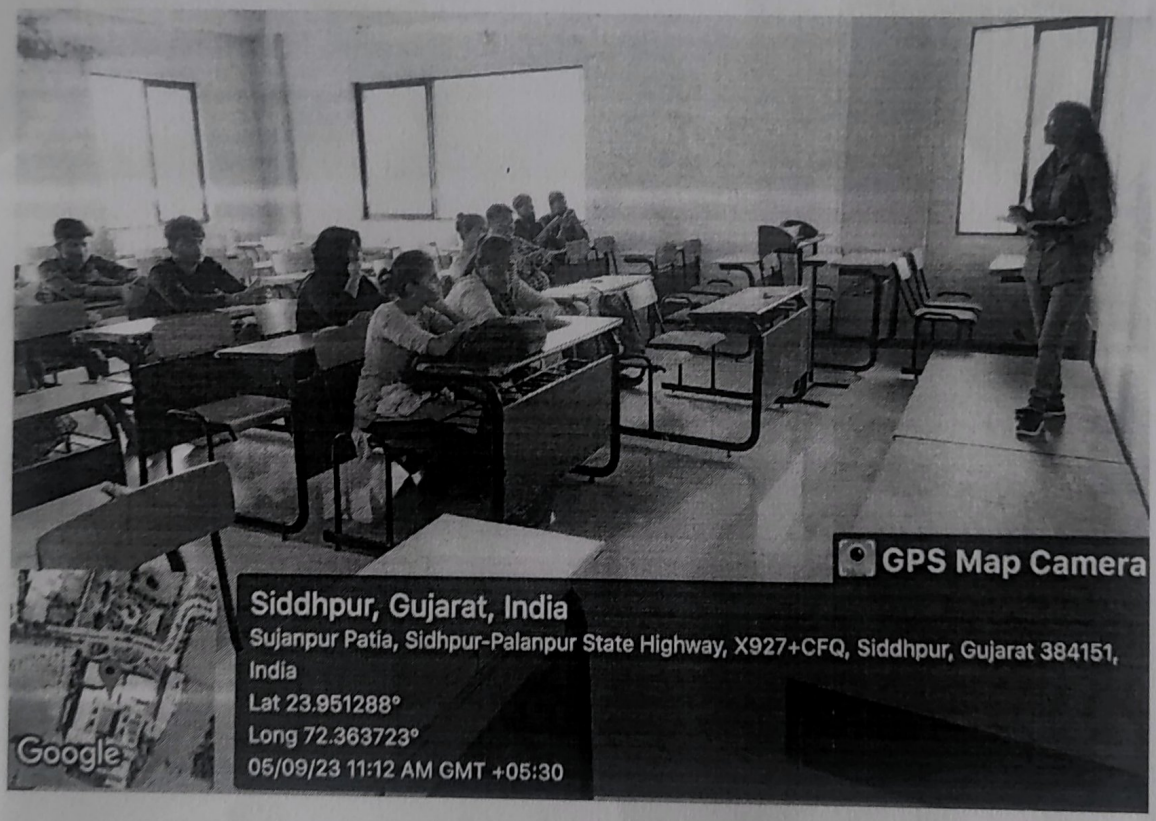
REPORT ON

Teacher's day

Summary:

Civil Engineering Department of Hansaba College of engineering & Technology organized a teacher's day on 5th September 2023 in the fond memory of Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan's birth anniversary who is an educator, politician, philosopher, and a great teacher, in which five students play a role of faculty.

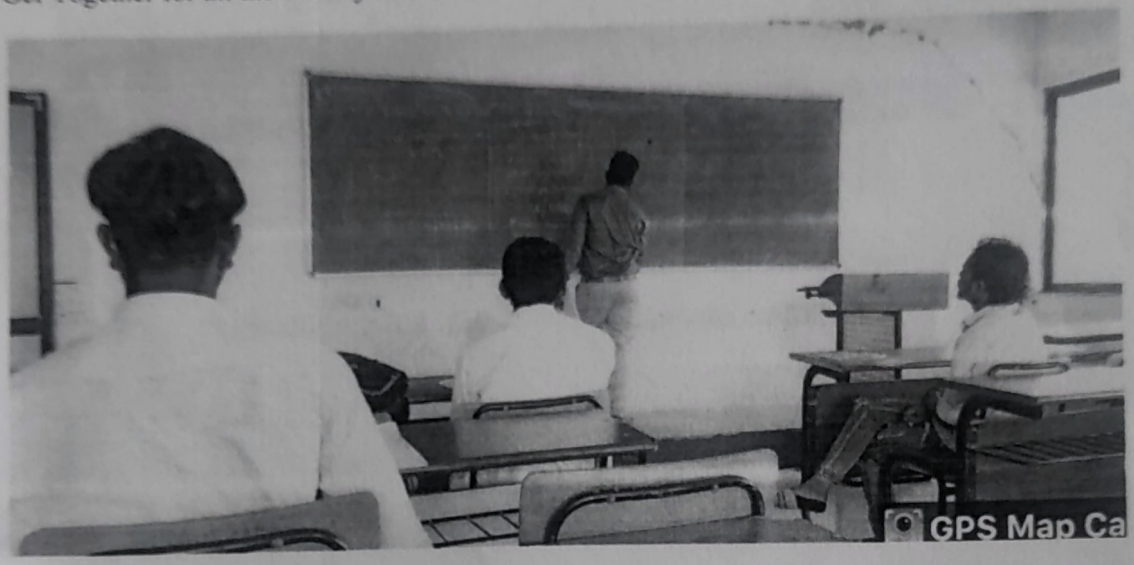
Teachers play a major role in making their students responsible citizens of tomorrow and good human beings. It is impossible to imagine our lives without teachers. They are the cornerstone of our future. We can never thank teachers enough for their immense contribution in a student's life. Teacher's Day is celebrated to show acknowledgement and recognition of the hard work put in by the teachers towards their development.



Participated Students:

Students always look forward to Teacher's Day with a lot of anticipation, for the sheer spirit of the occasion. By celebrating the occasion, they get a fair idea of the responsibility, so efficiently handled by their teachers. It requires a lot of hard work and dedication to be a good teacher and earn the affection of students at the same time. Teachers, on this day, are reminded of their school days and feel nostalgic. Students arranged a wonderful celebration for their teachers. They decorated the Class- Room and conducted the event in a very well-organized manner.

In the second half of the day the Management of the Institute had arranged for refreshments and a Get-Together for all the Faculty members.



Acknowledgement:

We are glad to share this report. We are offering our sincerest thanks to our Dean Dr. Bhargav P Majmundar Sir for granting permission and his support for celebration of day. We are also thankful to Head of Department Mr. Kartik Patel sir for whole management. We are thankful to Prof. Anjaliben K. Rami for the management. Further we extended our thanks to whole Civil Engineering Department staffs and students who help us for making this possible.

Brief Report-

The Women's Health Awareness Programme aims to empower women with knowledge, resources, and support for managing their health effectively. Its primary objectives are:

1. Promote Awareness:- Educate women about essential health issues, including reproductive health, maternal and child health, menstrual hygiene, mental health, and chronic diseases.

2. Preventive Health Measures:- Encourage regular health screenings and preventive practices to reduce the risk of diseases, particularly those common among women, such as breast and cervical cancers, osteoporosis, and heart disease.

3. Access to Healthcare Services:- Improve women's access to healthcare facilities, including family planning services, prenatal and postnatal care, and vaccinations, especially in underserved communities.

4. Nutritional Awareness: Provide information on nutrition and dietary needs specific to women's health, addressing issues such as anemia, malnutrition, and vitamin deficiencies.

5. Mental Health Support: Raise awareness about mental health and provide resources for managing stress, depression, and anxiety, focusing on the unique challenges faced by women.

6. Empowerment through Education: Equip women with information on self-care practices and health rights, enabling them to make informed decisions about their health and well-being.

By focusing on these areas, the programme aims to improve women's overall health and quality of life and foster a community where they can thrive physically, mentally, and socially.

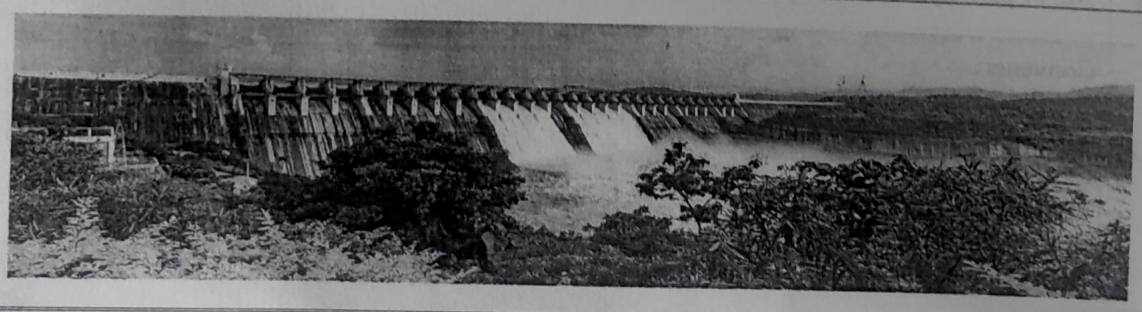
ENGINEER'S DAY CELEBRATION

BY

GOKUL GLOBAL UNIVERSITY

CIVIL ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT

DATE: 15TH SEPT, 2023



REPORT ON ENGINEER'S DAY CELEBRATION

Self-examination not moral or spiritual, but secular – that is, a survey and analysis of local conditions in India and a comparative study of the same with those in other parts of the globe.

Gokul Global University, Civil engineering Department has celebrated Engineer's Day on 15th Sept 2023 in honor of Dr. M. Visvesvaraya, a True Gem of India and to remember the best of Engineers we ever had. September 15 is celebrated every year in the country as "Engineers' Day" to commemorate the birthday of the legendary engineer Sir Mokshagundam Visvesvaraya. Sir Visvesvaraya, an eminent Indian engineer and statesman was born in a remote village of Karnataka, the State that is incidentally now the Hi-tech State of the country. Due to his outstanding contribution to the society, Government of India conferred "Bharat Ratna" on this legend in the year 1955. He was also called the precursor of economic planning in India. His learned discourse on economic planning in India, Planned Economy for India and Reconstructing India, was the first available document on the planning effort of the country and it is still held as the parent source matter for economic planners.

The objectives of celebrations of Engineer's Day:

- To take a pledge to promote and encourage the youth to opt for Engineering education.
- To produce quality Engineers for the bright future of our country.

- On the occasion of Engineer's Day Celebrations many Technical events were organized in the Department of Civil Engineering. Total 95 students took part in these events. We organized four Technical and three Non- Technical events.

Technical Events:

(1) MODEL MUQABALA:

In this event college provided 2 thermo-coal sheet (& 1 kit which included cutter fevicol and many more items) per group and student make Sapananu ghar, unchi hai building, and waste to best design. In bridge competition college provided sticks fevicol cello tap and every extra item which is needed to student. For the model muqabla student had to complete their model with given proper dimension later 2 judges gave the point between 1-10 scale. After this competition we can classified those students who have ability to do something new in the fields of civil engineering.

(2) TECH HUNT:

In this activity student have to identify the mystery clue which is firstly given to every group, during this event student have to find out one by one clue and from those group 1 winner will be declared which is firstly reach the final point which is already decided by event coordinator.

(3) JUMBLED WORDS:

This type of activity student has to solve the civil engineering spelling which is given in random manner in these 10 minutes 10 words will have to be solved by any individual student whoever is firstly solved this puzzle will be winner.

Non-Technical Events :

Report on

ISRO AHMEDABAD VISIT

Date: September 23, 2023

On September 23, 2023, 33 students from Faculty of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences of Gokul Global University, Sidhpur, visited ISRO Ahmedabad, coordinated by Dr. Megha Arsh. The visit aimed to introduce students from the arts and humanities to India's advancements in space research and its societal impact.

Highlights:

- Presentation: ISRO staff presented India's space missions, focusing on satellite communication, remote sensing, and future programs.
- Tour: Students toured key divisions, including the Satellite Communication and Remote Sensing sections, learning about the role of space technology in environmental and social development.
- Scientist Interaction: ISRO scientists discussed interdisciplinary research, space missions, and technology's role in climate and agricultural studies, encouraging student engagement through a Q&A session.

The visit broadened students' perspectives on space research and its relevance to their fields and left students inspired by ISRO's contribution to science and society.

Dear Sir,

I take this opportunity to introduce Hansaba College of Engineering & Technology (HCET) operating under and situated in the sprawling Gokul Educational Campus, Sidhpur (Dist. Patan), as an institute with total commitment to quality and excellence in academic pursuit. It is recognized by UGC, and offers UG and PG courses in major disciplines of Civil, Mechanical, Electrical, Computer and Electronics & Communication Engineering. At HCET, We mentor our students with studies & updated curriculum collaborating the recent technological developments in the fields of engineering and technology, with an aim to bridge the gap between theories and practical applications. With a vision to be a world-class technical institution with significant international impact and strong local commitment, the college additionally focuses on upbringing eligible and excellent professionals to produce better citizens who can bring a change in the society by their thoughts and deeds; thereby shaping a better tomorrow.

As a part of better exposure to industry practices & research, we recommend our students to visit reputed organizations and interact with people to understand real world problems and prepare themselves accordingly. As a part of the same, we request you to permit our Civil engineering students to visit JK Lakshmi Cement Ltd.

Following are the details of the visit:
Discipline: Civil Engineering
No. of Students: 52 students & 4 faculties
Date of Visit: 02/10/2023
Kindly consider our request and join us in our efforts to achieve excellence in technical education.

Looking forward to your cooperation and positive response.

ANNUAL AWRENESS PROGRAMME

ON

CODE OF CONDUCT PROGRAM

Introduction

On October 26, 2023, Gokul Nursing College organized a Code of Conduct Program for the 1st-year GNM and B.Sc Nursing students. This event aimed to familiarize students with the professional standards, ethical behavior, and responsibilities essential for their future careers in nursing. Upholding a code of conduct is vital for ensuring patient safety, fostering trust in the healthcare system, and maintaining a high level of professionalism.

Objectives:

1. Introduce Professional Ethics: Educate students on the fundamental ethical principles and legal obligations in nursing.
2. Promote Professionalism: Instill the values of professionalism, including respect, integrity, accountability, and empathy.
3. Enhance Communication Skills: Teach the importance of clear, respectful, and professional communication with patients, peers, and healthcare teams.
4. Ensure Patient Safety: Highlight the role of ethical decision-making in providing safe and effective patient care.
5. Clarify Institutional Policies: Inform students about the rules, regulations, and policies specific to Gokul Nursing College and the healthcare facilities where they will be placed.

Key Components:

GOKUL NURSING COLLEGE SIDHPUR

1. Introduction to Nursing Ethics and Standards: Explanation of the nursing code of ethics, patient rights, and confidentiality.
2. Professional Behavior and Responsibilities: Guidance on punctuality, dress code, conduct in clinical and classroom settings, and dealing with stressful situations.
3. Interpersonal Relationships: Focus on respectful and empathetic communication with patients, family members, and the healthcare team.
4. Legal Aspects of Nursing: Overview of laws related to nursing practice, patient consent, negligence, and malpractice.
5. Institutional Code of Conduct: Discussion of the specific policies at Gokul Nursing College, including attendance, discipline, and academic honesty.

Conclusion:

The Code of Conduct Program on October 26, 2023, was a crucial initiative by Gokul Nursing College aimed at building a strong ethical foundation for its 1st-year GNM and B.Sc Nursing students. By educating them on the importance of professionalism, integrity, and patient safety, the program prepared the students to meet the challenges of the healthcare industry while adhering to high ethical and professional standards.

03	Nature of Activity (Curricular/Extracurricular/Social):	Curricular
04	Level of Activity (College / State/ National / International):	College
05	Objective/Aim of Activity:	Engineers Day is observed every year to mark and appreciate the contribution of engineers in the development of the nation and to the entire globe. The development began with engineers but contrary to this we have forgotten the one by whose grace mankind was engineered and the entire universe came into existence. Obviously, it was by the divine grace of the Biggest Engineer, The Supreme God Kabir. Because it seems to be hypothetical to everyone that Lord Kabir can be the Almighty Power, so along with acquiring the knowledge about Engineers day, let us know something about that Greatest Engineer by whose grace the human race came into existence.

Awareness Program on 'Consumer Protection'

Sr. No.	ActivityDetails	Particulars

22nd July 2023

The Gokul College of Commerce and Management was invited by the State Institute of Hotel Management (SIHM Sidhpur) Gujarat.

It was an Inter-college cultural exchange program, where students of both the colleges got together. Performed cultural activities such as; Drama, Play and Speeches regarding consumer awareness specifically among the people from rural areas.

The students, under guidance of Dr. JP Mishra (Dean, GCCM) Asso. Prof Mrs. Preeti Mishra (GCCM) attended the session. The chief guest was General Manager Mr. Rajat Katiyar of Hotel Hyatt (Ahmedabad), other guests Mr. Manuji Thakor (Principal, SIHM) and Dr. SS Mihra were also present there.

Students concluded the drama with a positive resolution, where the characters successfully overcame the challenges and asserted their rights.Encouraged the audience to be proactive in protecting themselves as consumers.

Throughout the drama, they included humour, relatable situations, and interactive elements to keep the audience engaged. Considered incorporating real-life examples of consumer protection issues to make the message more impactful. Additionally, they ended up the performance with a discussion and Q&A session to further engagement with the audience and to reinforce the key messages about consumer rights and protection.

Being part of this program, students enjoyed a lot. They seemed to be refreshed meeting with other students. It was kind fun learning experience for them.

The celebration extended the exchange of ideas, culture and moreover the message conveyed to the consumers. Post celebration students had a lunch altogether then proceeded for farewell.

Event Title: Faculty Development Program on Research Methodology

Organized By: Gokul Ayurvedic College

Date & Venue: October 14-16, 2023, Gokul Ayurvedic College, Siddhpur

Expert Speaker: Dr Ritesh vaidhya

Convener: Manjeet Vadher

Objective: To help and support faculty members enrolled for PhD, aspiring to undertake research and write papers, and to understand various options for research funding.

Summary: The FDP focused on equipping faculty members with the necessary skills and knowledge to conduct effective research. The program included sessions on:

- Introduction to research methodology
- Quantitative and qualitative research methods
- Multivariate data analysis using tools like IBM-SPSS and AMOS
- Scientific writing and publication
- Ethical considerations in research

The program also provided insights into various research funding options and support for writing res earch papers and proposals.

Faculty Development Programs (FDP) focused on research methodology. Here's a brief overview of what such programs typically cover:

1. Introduction to Research Methodology: Understanding the basics of research, including defi ning research problems, formulating hypotheses, and selecting appropriate research designs.
2. Quantitative and Qualitative Methods: Exploring various data collection techniques, such as surveys, interviews, and experiments, and learning how to analyze and interpret data using s tatistical tools.
3. Multivariate Data Analysis: Using advanced tools like IBM-SPSS, AMOS, and VOS Viewer to conduct complex data analysis and draw meaningful conclus ions.
4. Scientific Writing: Developing skills in writing research papers, reports, and proposals, with a focus on clarity, coherence, and adherence to academic standards.
5. Ethical Considerations: Understanding the ethical aspects of conducting research, including i ssues related to consent, confidentiality, and data integrity.

These programs are designed to equip participants with the necessary skills and knowledge to conduct effective and rigorous research.

Conclusion:

The Faculty Development Program on Research Methodology provided an invaluable platform for faculty members to enhance their research skills. Participants gained a comprehensive understanding of various research methodologies, both quantitative and qualitative, and were equipped with the tools necessary for advanced data analysis. The program emphasized the importance of ethical research practices and effective scientific writing, ensuring that faculty members are wellprepared to contribute to academic scholarship. The sessions on research funding and proposal writing offered practical insights that will aid participants in securing grants and conducting impactful research. Overall, the FDP fostered an environment of learning and collaboration, empowering faculty members to pursue their research endeavors with confidence and rigor.

Event Title: Faculty Development Program (FDP) on "Excel Power Tools for Data Analysis"

Organized By: Gokul Ayurvedic College

Date & Venue: March 11-13, 2024, At seminar hall of Gokul Ayurvedic College, Siddhpur

Expert Speaker: Mr. Yagna Adhvaryu

Convener: Manjeet Vadher

Objective: To enhance faculty members' skills in using advanced Excel tools for effective data analysis.

Summary: The FDP focused on providing hands-on experience with advanced Excel functions, formulas, and data visualization techniques. The progr am aimed to equip participants with the necessary skills to analyze data efficiently and make data-driven decisions. Sessions included:

- Advanced functions and formulas in Excel
- Data visualization techniques using charts and graphs
- Pivot tables and pivot charts for summarizing data
- Conditional formatting and data analysis tools

The program featured expert speakers, including Mr. Yagna Adhvaryu from Hansaba Engineering College, who shared their knowledge and experiences. The FDP saw the participation of 45 faculty members and from 3 different faculty of Gokul Global university.

SUMMARY OF EVENT REPORT

Introduction

On May 4, 2024, Gokul Nursing College celebrated Midwifery Day with enthusiasm and dedication. The 3rd-year GNM students took the lead in organizing this event, which focused on raising awareness about the vital role of midwives in maternal and neonatal care. The celebration included the creation of educational charts and the demonstration of key midwifery procedures, providing both an educational and hands-on experience for students and participants.

Objective

The objective of celebrating Midwifery Day was to:

1. Enhance Knowledge: To deepen the understanding of midwifery practices among students through practical demonstrations and educational materials.
2. Raise Awareness: To highlight the importance of midwifery in ensuring safe and effective childbirth.
3. Skill Development: To provide students with the opportunity to practice and refine their skills in key areas such as the mechanism of labor and the anatomical understanding of the skull and pelvis.
4. Promote Collaboration: To encourage teamwork and collaboration among students as they prepared for and participated in the event.

Key Components

1. Chart Preparation: The students prepared informative charts that reflected the theme of Midwifery Day. These charts covered a range of topics, including the role of midwives, stages of labor, and maternal health practices.

GOKUL NURSING COLLEGE SIDHPUR

2. Practical Demonstrations: Students demonstrated the mechanism of labor, showcasing their understanding of the childbirth process. They also explained the anatomy of the skull and pelvis, which are critical in understanding the birthing process.
3. Educational Sessions: The event included sessions where students explained the concepts behind their charts and demonstrations, providing a deeper understanding to their peers and faculty.
4. Interactive Learning: The hands-on nature of the activities allowed students to engage actively with the material, enhancing their learning experience.

Conclusion

The Midwifery Day celebration on May 4, 2024, at Gokul Nursing College was a successful event that not only honored the contributions of midwives but also provided an invaluable learning experience for the 3rd-year GNM students. Through the preparation of charts, demonstrations, and educational sessions, students were able to deepen their understanding of midwifery and improve their practical skills, reinforcing the critical role midwives play in healthcare

Training program on Microsoft office

Introduction

From 11 July to 12 July, 2023, The Faculty of Nursing held an administrative training program focused on Microsoft Office (M.S. Office) for Faculty & Non-teaching staff. The training was organized by Mr. Mayurraj Singh, a clerk at the institution. The purpose of this program was to enhance the digital literacy and efficiency of the Teaching and non-teaching staff by equipping them with essential M.S. Office skills.

Objective:

The primary objective of the training program was to improve the proficiency of non-teaching staff in using M.S. Office tools, such as Word, Excel, and PowerPoint. This initiative aimed to streamline administrative tasks, enhance productivity, and ensure accurate and efficient management of data and documentation within the institution.

Key Components:

1. Introduction to M.S. Office Suite: An overview of the various applications within M.S. Office, highlighting their importance in daily administrative tasks.
2. Microsoft Word: Training on creating, formatting, and managing documents, including advanced features such as mail merge and document templates.
3. Microsoft Excel: Hands-on practice with spreadsheets, including data entry, formula creation, and the use of functions for data analysis and reporting.
4. Microsoft PowerPoint: Instruction on creating engaging presentations, including the use of design templates, transitions, and animations.

GOKUL NURSING COLLEGE SIDDHPUR

5. Practical Exercises: Real-time tasks and exercises to reinforce learning, allowing participants to apply the skills they acquired during the training.

Conclusion:

The administrative training program on M.S. Office was a valuable initiative, providing non-teaching staff with the necessary skills to enhance their work efficiency. The hands-on approach ensured that participants could effectively use M.S. Office applications in their daily tasks, leading to improved productivity and better management of administrative duties. The successful completion of the program demonstrated the commitment of the Faculty of Nursing to the continuous development of its staff.

REPORT ON GUEST LECTURE ON ROLE OF CO-PO MAPPING IN MEETING ACCREDITATION STANDARDS.

Date: 01/12/2023

The lecture commenced with a warm introduction by Amit Ved, a well-known expert in academic management and curriculum design. He thanked the audience for their participation and highlighted the significance of Outcome-Based Education (OBE) in today's educational landscape.

Amit Ved explained that CO-PO mapping is an essential process that links individual course goals to the larger program objectives. This alignment ensures that students' learning at the course level directly contributes to the overall competencies they are expected to acquire by the time they graduate.

Amit Ved emphasized that accreditation standards focus heavily on outcomes-based education. Institutions are not merely evaluated on the content of their courses but on how well students are achieving the learning outcomes. Proper CO-PO mapping provides clear evidence of how each course contributes to achieving the broader program outcomes required for accreditation. He stressed the need for regular faculty training to ensure consistent and accurate CO-PO mapping. He also mentioned the importance of using digital tools and software for automating the mapping and reporting process, especially for large academic programs. He emphasized that assessment data should be regularly analyzed and used for continuous improvement. This allows academic programs to adapt and evolve, ensuring that both the COs and POs remain relevant and aligned with the latest educational and industry standards.

The lecture by Amit Ved on the Role of CO-PO Mapping in Meeting Accreditation Standards was highly informative and offered valuable insights into how institutions can better align their courses with program goals and meet accreditation requirements. The session provided practical solutions to common challenges in the mapping process and encouraged a data-driven approach to continuous improvement in educational programs.

REPORT ON GUEST LECTURE ONCOLLABORATION BETWEEN DOCTORS AND PHYSIOTHERAPISTS IN MANAGING SPORTS INJURIES

Date: 24/04/2024

The guest lecture delivered by Dr. Vishal Shukla focused on the significant collaboration between doctors and physiotherapists in managing sports injuries. Dr. Shukla, an expert in sports medicine, shared insights into how interdisciplinary teamwork is essential for optimal patient outcomes. The lecture aimed at enlightening students and professionals on the critical roles both doctors and physiotherapists play in rehabilitating athletes and how their collaboration enhances recovery processes.

The lecture then shifted focus to the role of physiotherapists, who design rehabilitation protocols post-injury. Dr. Shukla explained how physiotherapists are instrumental in restoring function, preventing further injury, and ensuring safe return to sports. Techniques such as manual therapy, exercises, and modalities like ultrasound and electrical stimulation were discussed.

Dr. Vishal Shukla concluded the lecture by reiterating that the collaboration between doctors and physiotherapists is critical for the comprehensive treatment of sports injuries. By working together, these professionals ensure that athletes not only recover quickly but also return to their sport safely and with minimized risk of re-injury. The lecture was highly informative and beneficial for attendees, offering practical insights into interdisciplinary teamwork in sports medicine.

The lecture provided valuable knowledge to both medical and physiotherapy students, enabling them to understand their future roles in sports injury management. It also emphasized the importance of teamwork in healthcare, particularly in a field like sports medicine where quick recovery is crucial. Attendees gained a deeper appreciation for the interconnected roles of doctors and physiotherapists in ensuring an athlete's holistic recovery.

This lecture has enhanced the participants' awareness of evidence-based practices in sports injury management and the necessity of coordinated care for athletes' well-being.

Event Report

Date: 24/01/2024

The Faculty of Commerce and Management organized the "National Girl Child Day" celebration on 24/01/2024, held at the auditorium of Gokul Global University. This successful extra-curricular event aimed at promoting awareness and supporting the rights and education of girl children in India. The event was graced by the presence of special guests Dr. Mahesh Maida (Director, Sports & Cultural Activities, GGU) and Mr. Rohit Shika (TPO, GGU).

The program featured an expert lecture delivered by Dr. Mahesh Maida, who emphasized the importance of empowering girl children through education, health, and equal opportunities. He highlighted various initiatives and policies aimed at supporting the girl child and encouraged students to actively participate in promoting gender equality.

Students were informed about the key elements of National Girl Child Day, which includes advocating for the rights of girls, raising awareness about the issues they face, and promoting their wellbeing and education. The program underscored the significance of creating a supportive and inclusive environment for girls both in educational institutions and the broader community.

The event provided valuable resources and information about support services available for girl children, including scholarships, health programs, and legal rights. The program fostered open dialogue, creating a safe environment for students to ask questions, share concerns, and discuss ways to support the girl child openly without judgment. It also emphasized the role of community support in upholding the values and standards of gender equality.

The event saw active participation from the students of Commerce & Management, with faculty members and other guests contributing to the discussions.

The program was wellreceived, and the objectives were met, making it a memorable and impactful experience for all attendees.

curricular event aimed at promoting awareness among students regarding the university's code of conduct. The expert lecture, delivered by Dr. Arun Varghese (Dean, GNC), focused on educating students about the importance of adhering to the university's code of conduct, understanding ethical behavior, and fostering a respectful campus environment.
Students were informed about the key elements of the code of conduct, which includes academic integrity, respectful communication, and responsible use of campus resources. The program highlighted the significance of maintaining a disciplined and respectful atmosphere, both on and off-campus.
The event provided valuable resources and information about the support services available for students who need guidance on ethical issues and misconduct. The program fostered open dialogue, creating a safe environment for students to ask questions, share concerns, and discuss the code of conduct openly without judgment. It also emphasized the role of peer support in upholding the values and standards of the university community.
The event saw active participation from the students of Commerce & Management, with faculty members and other guests contributing to the discussions. The program was well-received, and the objectives were met, making it a memorable and impactful experience for all attendees.

TRAINING PROGRAMME ON TALLY SOFTWARE

Introduction:

On April 24&25, 2024, the Faculty of Nursing organized an administrative training program focused on TALLY software for non-teaching staff. The program, led by the clerk, Mayurraj Singh, was designed to enhance the financial management skills of the administrative team by providing them with comprehensive training on TALLY, a widely-used accounting software. This initiative aimed to improve the efficiency and accuracy of financial transactions and record-keeping within the institution.

Objective:

The primary objective of the training program was to equip non-teaching staff with the necessary skills to operate TALLY software proficiently. This included understanding the basics of accounting, managing financial records, and generating reports. The program aimed to streamline the financial processes within the institution, ensuring accurate bookkeeping and facilitating better financial decision-making.

Key Components:

1. Introduction to TALLY Software: Overview of TALLY, its features, and its role in managing financial transactions and records.
2. Basic Accounting Principles: Instruction on fundamental accounting concepts, including ledgers, vouchers, and financial statements, to provide a solid foundation for using TALLY.

GOKUL NURSING COLLEGE SIDHPUR

3. Data Entry and Management: Hands-on training on entering financial data, managing accounts, and maintaining accurate records within the TALLY software.
4. Generating Financial Reports: Guidance on creating various financial reports, such as balance sheets, profit and loss statements, and cash flow statements, using TALLY.
5. Practical Exercises: Real-time exercises to apply the skills learned, ensuring participants can effectively use TALLY in their daily administrative tasks.

Conclusion:

The administrative training program on TALLY software was a significant step toward enhancing the financial management capabilities of the non-teaching staff. By mastering TALLY, participants can now manage the institution's financial records more efficiently and accurately, contributing to better financial oversight and decision-making. The successful completion of this program demonstrated the Faculty of Nursing's commitment to continuous professional development and operational excellence.

Different Photograph of Police Recruitment Training Programme

Training Programme Report- The Police Recruitment Training Programme is designed to equip newly recruited police officers with the essential skills, knowledge, and discipline required for effective law enforcement. It typically includes both theoretical and practical training components.

1. Physical Training: - Focuses on improving fitness, stamina, and combat skills, essential for handling various physical challenges encountered in the field.
2. Legal Education: - Recruits are taught about criminal laws, procedural codes, human rights, and constitutional duties. This ensures that officers operate within legal frameworks and uphold justice fairly.
3. Weapons Training: - Recruits receive instruction in the safe handling, maintenance, and usage of firearms and other equipment necessary for their duties.
4. Soft Skills & Community Policing: - Emphasizes communication skills, conflict resolution, and approaches for building positive relationships with the community.
5. Field Training: - Involves practical exposure to real-life policing scenarios, such as traffic management, crime investigation, and patrolling.

This comprehensive training ensures that recruits are well-prepared to protect and serve the public effectively while maintaining law and order.

Brief Report-

The Women's Health Awareness Programme aims to empower women with knowledge, resources, and support for managing their health effectively. Its primary objectives are:

1. Promote Awareness:- Educate women about essential health issues, including reproductive health, maternal and child health, menstrual hygiene, mental health, and chronic diseases.

2. Preventive Health Measures:- Encourage regular health screenings and preventive practices to reduce the risk of diseases, particularly those common among women, such as breast and cervical cancers, osteoporosis, and heart disease.

3. Access to Healthcare Services:- Improve women's access to healthcare facilities, including family planning services, prenatal and postnatal care, and vaccinations, especially in underserved communities.

4. Nutritional Awareness: Provide information on nutrition and dietary needs specific to women's health, addressing issues such as anemia, malnutrition, and vitamin deficiencies.

Faculty of Humanities Sidhpur Gokul Global University

5. Mental Health Support: Raise awareness about mental health and provide resources for managing stress, depression, and anxiety, focusing on the unique challenges faced by women.

6. Empowerment through Education: Equip women with information on self-care practices and health rights, enabling them to make informed decisions about their health and well-being.

By focusing on these areas, the programme aims to improve women's overall health and quality of life and foster a community where they can thrive physically, mentally, and socially.

ISRO AHMEDABAD VISIT

Date: September 23, 2023

On September 23, 2023, 33 students from Faculty of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences of Gokul Global University, Sidhpur, visited ISRO Ahmedabad, coordinated by Dr. Megha Arsh. The visit aimed to introduce students from the arts and humanities to India's advancements in space research and its societal impact.

Highlights:

- Presentation: ISRO staff presented India's space missions, focusing on satellite communication, remote sensing, and future programs.
- Tour: Students toured key divisions, including the Satellite Communication and Remote Sensing sections, learning about the role of space technology in environmental and social development.
- Scientist Interaction: ISRO scientists discussed interdisciplinary research, space missions, and technology's role in climate and agricultural studies, encouraging student engagement through a Q&A session.

The visit broadened students' perspectives on space research and its relevance to their fields and left students inspired by ISRO's contribution to science and society.

Brief Report: Gokul Arts College hosted an orientation program for BA Semester—I students on September 1st, 2023. The purpose of the event was to acquaint the new students with the academic environment of the university. It took place in the university auditorium. Dr. Tarun Kumar Dwivedi oversaw the orientation program, ensuring that everything ran smoothly and that everyone participated throughout the session.

Ms. Keshar Yadav gave a heartfelt welcoming address to kick off the event, outlining the program's plan and introducing the dignitaries in attendance. The Registrar, Dr. Himmatsinh Rajput, then spoke to the students, urging them to get the most out of their time in school. He highlighted the value of self-control, consistency, and curiosity in the search for knowledge.

Subsequently, Dr. Lalit S. Patel, the Dean of Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences, addressed the BA program's structure on stage. He went into detail about the university's key courses, academic requirements, and opportunities for students. The pupils were motivated to approach their academics with enthusiasm and determination by his lecture.

Dr. Renukaben Rajput, the principal of our Arts College, also gave a speech about the institution's future plans and emphasized to the pupils the value of holistic development. In her speech, she discussed striking a balance between academic achievement and personal development, encouraging students to engage in extracurricular activities to develop their talents outside of the classroom.

The exam coordinators, Prof. Martik Prajapati, Dr. Naresh Ravat and Dr. Vijay Senma, provided the students with information regarding the examination and evaluation system, making sure they were familiar with the guidelines and procedures for assessments. Additionally, they gave the advice on how students could maintain their organization throughout the semester and get ready for their exams.

Faculty of Humanities * Gokul * Sidhpur

In the summing-up Dr. Megha Arsh provided a thorough rundown of the academic schedule as well as the several student support networks, such as mentorship; counseling, and academic help services. She underlined the value of staying in touch with faculty members and asking for assistance when necessary.

Dr. Tarun Kumar Dwivedi added, an effective orientation program is essential for helping new students transition successfully into university life, equipping them with the resources, skills, and connections they need to thrive academically and socially. This foundational experience sets the stage for a positive and successful university journey

At a question-and-answer session with the dignitaries that followed the orientation programme, the students were able to get their questions answered and concerns addressed. The successful event created a great atmosphere for the forthcoming academic year.

Brief Report

On 10th November 2023, the Department of Psychology of the Faculty of Arts, Humanities, and Social Science organized a seminar on World Mental Health Day to raise awareness about mental health issues like depression, fear, and social media addiction. Dr. Himmatsinh Rajput, Registrar of Gokul Global University, was the chief guest, along with other distinguished speakers. Fifty-five students attended and learned valuable insights on how to manage these challenges.

The seminar, supported by faculty members, aimed to help students and the local community understand and address mental health concerns. It successfully provided practical advice on overcoming mental health struggles and encouraged a healthier mindset among participants.

On World Mental Health Day, the university organized events to foster mental well-being awareness among students and staff. The day featured an interactive workshop led by mental health professionals, discussing stress management, self-care practices, and recognizing signs of mental health issues. Students engaged in mindfulness exercises and group discussions to promote resilience and emotional health. The university's counseling team set up a help desk, encouraging students to seek support when needed. The Vice-Chancellor emphasized the importance of mental health in academic success, advocating for a stigma-free environment. The event highlighted the university's commitment to a supportive campus culture.

Objective of the Event

The primary objective of the event was to provide a comprehensive understanding of the NAAC (National Assessment and Accreditation Council) framework and its significance in ensuring quality assurance in higher education institutions. The event aimed to equip participants with the necessary knowledge and tools to enhance the quality of education and maintain accreditation standards.

Overview of the Event

The event commenced with a warm welcome address by Dr. Dhaval Vyas, who introduced the theme and highlighted the importance of quality assurance in higher education. Following the welcome address, the inaugural session featured a keynote speech by Dr. Kalpesh Wandra, who elaborated on the role of NAAC in promoting quality education through assessment and accreditation.

The session was structured around the following key topics:

1. Understanding NAAC:

   An overview of NAAC, its objectives, and the accreditation process was presented. The resource person explained the different assessment criteria and the significance of each in maintaining educational standards.

2. Quality Assurance Framework:=

GOKUL GLOBAL UNIVERSITY विद्या अनंतम् SIDHPUR

The framework for quality assurance in higher education institutions was discussed, focusing on key areas such as curriculum design, teaching-learning processes, research and innovation, infrastructure, and student support services.

3. Documentation and Data Management:

   Participants learned about the importance of proper documentation and data management for the accreditation process. Best practices for collecting, organizing, and presenting data were shared.

4. Role of Stakeholders:

   The involvement of various stakeholders, including faculty, administration, and students, in the quality assurance process was emphasized. The importance of collaboration and communication among stakeholders was highlighted.

5. Challenges and Solutions:

   Common challenges faced by institutions in the accreditation process were discussed, along with strategies for overcoming these challenges.

Interactive Session

An interactive session followed the presentations, where participants were encouraged to ask questions and share their experiences regarding quality assurance practices in their respective institutions. The resource persons provided valuable insights and addressed the concerns raised by the attendees.

Conclusion

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Chetansinh Vaghela who expressed gratitude to the resource persons for their valuable contributions and to all participants for their engagement. The event was successful in enhancing awareness about the NAAC pathway for quality assurance and provided participants with actionable insights to improve quality standards in higher education.

Key Outcomes

1. Enhanced understanding of the NAAC accreditation process among participants.
2. Increased awareness of best practices for quality assurance in higher education.
