2. Report on the Celebration of International Days, Events, and Festivals

National Law Day Celebration:

National Law Day, or Constitution Day, celebrated annually on November 26th to honor the adoption of the Indian Constitution, was marked by Faculty of Law, Gokul Global University with a special event in 2023. The program featured a keynote address by a distinguished legal expert, emphasizing the Constitution's role in safeguarding fundamental rights and maintaining democratic balance. A panel discussion explored constitutional rights and duties, followed by a student debate on the relevance of the Constitution today and a quiz on its provisions. A legal awareness workshop addressed issues like privacy and cyber laws. The event concluded with a vote of thanks, awarding participants, and fostering a deeper appreciation of the Constitution and its significance.

National Law Day — also known as Samvidhan Divas — is celebrated in India on November 26 every year to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. Constitution Day is not a public holiday, however, government departments and schools across the country acknowledge the day with various events and activities. As per the Department of Education and Literacy, the preamble of the constitution is read in all schools by all students. Also, there are quiz and essay competitions both online and offline on the subject. The Department of Higher Education also requests various universities to arrange mock parliamentary debates in colleges.

Independence Day celebration 2023

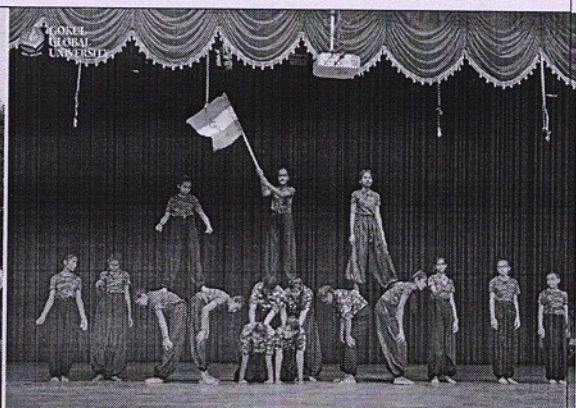

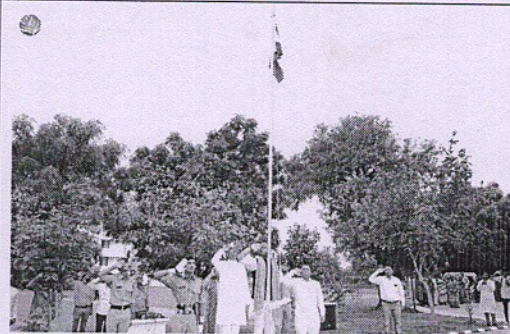

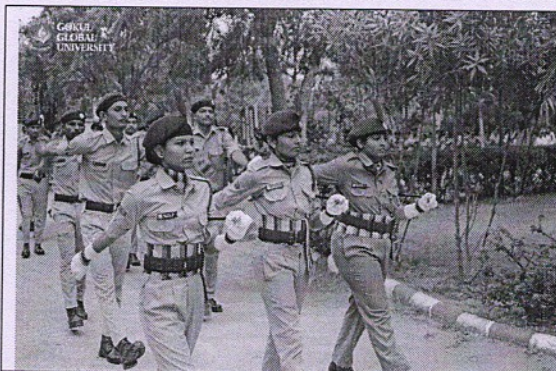

August 15, 2023

India@77

After celebrating its 76 years of independence as "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav", an initiative of our Honorable Prime minister Shri Narendra Modiji and Government of India, on August 15, 2023 the nation is celebrated its 77th Independence Day.

Gokul Global University under the leadership of managing trustee Shri Arjunsinh Rajput witnessed the Josh of Independence day. The celebration included flag hoisting followed by Salami and cultural programmes.

Floral welcome to the dignitaries and senior citizens of Sidhpur was accorded by CEO Shri Rajendrasinh Solanki and Provost Dr. Sunil Joshi. Deans of constituent faculties, University officers, teaching & non-teaching staff members and students witnessed the patriotic enthusiasm and enjoyed very well organized cultural programmes. Shri Manoj Patel, Dean, Faculty of Computer Science and Applications offered vote of thanks. The entire programme was co-ordinated by the Sports and Cultural Department of Gokul Global University.

SUMMARY OF EVENT REPORT

Introduction

On May 4, 2024, Gokul Nursing College celebrated Midwifery Day with enthusiasm and dedication. The 3rd-year GNM students took the lead in organizing this event, which focused on raising awareness about the vital role of midwives in maternal and neonatal care. The celebration included the creation of educational charts and the demonstration of key midwifery procedures, providing both an educational and hands-on experience for students and participants.

Objective

The objective of celebrating Midwifery Day was to:

1. Enhance Knowledge: To deepen the understanding of midwifery practices among students through practical demonstrations and educational materials.
2. Raise Awareness: To highlight the importance of midwifery in ensuring safe and effective childbirth.
3. Skill Development: To provide students with the opportunity to practice and refine their skills in key areas such as the mechanism of labor and the anatomical understanding of the skull and pelvis.
4. Promote Collaboration: To encourage teamwork and collaboration among students as they prepared for and participated in the event.

Key Components

1. Chart Preparation: The students prepared informative charts that reflected the theme of Midwifery Day. These charts covered a range of topics, including the role of midwives, stages of labor, and maternal health practices.

[Handwritten signature]

2. Practical Demonstrations: Students demonstrated the mechanism of labor, showcasing their understanding of the childbirth process. They also explained the anatomy of the skull and pelvis, which are critical in understanding the birthing process.
3. Educational Sessions: The event included sessions where students explained the concepts behind their charts and demonstrations, providing a deeper understanding to their peers and faculty.
4. Interactive Learning: The hands-on nature of the activities allowed students to engage actively with the material, enhancing their learning experience.

Conclusion

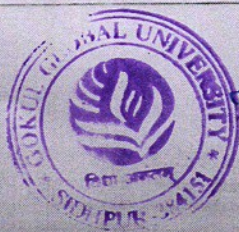

The Midwifery Day celebration on May 4, 2024, at Gokul Nursing College was a successful event that not only honored the contributions of midwives but also provided an invaluable learning experience for the 3rd-year GNM students. Through the preparation of charts, demonstrations, and educational sessions, students were able to deepen their understanding of midwifery and improve their practical skills, reinforcing the critical role midwives play in healthcare.

Event Report

Introduction

To commemorate the International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer, Gokul Global University (GGU) organized on 16th September 2023, an engaging event that included educational activities and a quiz competition for students. The goal was to raise awareness about the importance of the ozone layer, its depletion, and global efforts to protect it. The event aligned with the university's mission to encourage environmental responsibility and proactive climate action among students.

Event Highlights

The program began with an inaugural speech by the Principal of the Gokul Science College, who emphasized the significance of the ozone layer in protecting life on Earth from harmful ultraviolet (UV) radiation. He applauded the success of the Montreal Protocol, which helped reduce the production of ozone-depleting substances (ODS). He stressed the need for continuous awareness and efforts to ensure the protection of the ozone layer for future generations.

Keynote Address

The keynote address was delivered by Mr. Pranav Patel, an Assistant professor at GGU. He provided an overview of the current state of the ozone layer and how concerted global action has helped its recovery. Mr. Patel discussed the environmental impact of ozone depletion, explaining how increased UV radiation affects human health, ecosystems, and marine life. He also highlighted the role of scientific innovations and policy measures in protecting the ozone layer, emphasizing the critical role of students in promoting eco-friendly practices.

Quiz Competition

A key highlight of the event was the Quiz Competition, designed to test students' knowledge about environmental issues, particularly related to the ozone layer and its preservation. The quiz aimed to foster engagement and encourage students to learn more about the scientific and global measures taken to protect the environment.

Format: The quiz was conducted in a team format, with each team consisting of three students from various departments. There were three rounds of questions, ranging from basic concepts about the ozone layer to more complex topics on global protocols, environmental science, and sustainability.

Quiz Rounds:

Round 1: Ozone Basics – Questions focused on the structure, importance, and function of the ozone layer.

Round 2: Environmental Policies – This round tested the students' knowledge of global initiatives like the Montreal Protocol, its history, and its effects on ozone layer recovery.

Round 3: Scientific Innovations – This round included questions on scientific advancements, green technologies, and eco-friendly alternatives to ODS.

Winning Team: The quiz competition was closely contested, with Team Green Guardians from the Department of Environmental Science winning first place. The team demonstrated excellent knowledge of environmental science and global efforts to address ozone depletion.

Prizes: The winners were awarded certificates of excellence and eco-friendly gifts, including books on environmental sustainability and green technology.

Student Presentations

In addition to the quiz, several students gave brief presentations on topics related to ozone preservation. Some key presentations included:

Impact of Ozone Depletion on Human Health and Ecosystems

The Montreal Protocol and Its Success

Sustainable Alternatives to Ozone-Depleting Substances

These presentations highlighted both the scientific understanding of the ozone layer and the social responsibility required to maintain its protection.

Interactive Awareness Session

An interactive session followed, where students engaged with faculty members and guest speakers, asking questions about ozone layer preservation and environmental challenges. The discussions emphasized the importance of individual actions in reducing harmful emissions and adopting sustainable practices. Students expressed interest in organizing further activities to spread awareness about environmental issues on campus.

Conclusion

The International Day for the Preservation of the Ozone Layer event at Gokul Global University was a resounding success, combining education, awareness, and interactive activities like the quiz competition. The event not only enhanced students' understanding of environmental issues but also motivated them to become ambassadors of sustainability. GGU remains committed to promoting environmental education and will continue organizing similar initiatives to engage the student community in climate action.

SUMMARY OF EVENT REPORT

DATE: 7/8/2023

Event details:

INTRODUCTION ABOUT THE EVENT

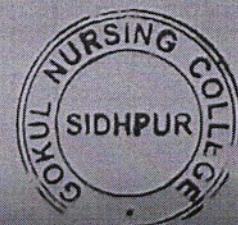

World Breastfeeding Week, observed from 1st to 7th August, was celebrated with great enthusiasm at Gokul Nursing College, Sidhpur. The event featured a combination of activities, including a Poster Presentation and a Health Talk, aimed at raising awareness about breastfeeding practices. The initiative was organized as an extracurricular activity, highlighting the college's commitment to promoting essential health education beyond the regular curriculum.

OBJECTIVE OF THE EVENT

1. Theme Awareness: To bring awareness to students regarding the theme of Breastfeeding Week, emphasizing its significance in maternal and child health.
2. Encourage Participation: Motivate students to actively participate in the Poster Presentation competition, fostering creativity and knowledge sharing.
3. Educational Focus: Provide knowledge on breastfeeding techniques, positions, and address societal barriers and challenges that mothers may face in successful breastfeeding.

KEY HIGHLIGHT :

- Type of Activity: Poster Presentation, Health Talk
- Nature of Activity: Extracurricular
- Level of Activity: College
- Duration/Time: 1st to 7th August 2023, 10:30 am to 3:30 pm
- Venues: Gokul Nursing College, Sidhpur, and Banas Hospital

- CONCLUSION

- The World Breastfeeding Week event at Gokul Nursing College was a comprehensive initiative that successfully achieved its objectives. The combination of a Poster Presentation and a Health Talk provided a holistic approach to addressing the importance of breastfeeding. The active participation of 88 students demonstrated the eagerness to engage in discussions related to maternal and child health. The faculty, under the leadership of Dr. Arun Kumar VN, the Principal, played crucial roles in organizing and facilitating the event. The success of the event reflects the college's dedication to holistic education and its commitment to promoting health awareness within the student community

Introduction

On April 7, in recognition of World Health Day, students from GMERS Hospital Dharpur were posted at Banas Civil Hospital Palanpur. The event focused on raising awareness about various health topics, aligned with the World Health Organization's annual health theme. The students actively participated by creating and presenting educational charts on different health-related issues, contributing to public health education and community awareness.

Objective

The primary objectives of this event were:

- To celebrate World Health Day by engaging in educational activities that promote public health.
- To raise awareness about critical health topics through visual aids and interactive discussions.
- To provide students with practical experience in health education and community engagement.
- To foster collaboration between healthcare institutions and the community.

Key Components

1. Chart Presentation: Students prepared and displayed charts on various health topics relevant to the World Health Day theme. These topics included disease prevention, healthy lifestyle practices, and the importance of regular health check-ups.
2. Interactive Sessions: The event included interactive sessions where students explained the content of their charts to patients, visitors, and hospital staff. These discussions helped to clarify doubts and disseminate important health information.

GOKUL
GLOBAL UNIVERSITY

Approved By Govt. of Gujarat
(Gujarat Act No. 4 of 2018)

3. Community Engagement: The students actively engaged with the community, encouraging them to adopt healthier habits and providing information on accessing healthcare services.
4. Collaboration: The event was a collaborative effort between GMERS Hospital Dharpur and Banas Civil Hospital, emphasizing the importance of teamwork in promoting public health.

Discussion

The World Health Day celebration at Banas Civil Hospital was a significant event that successfully met its objectives of raising health awareness and engaging the community. The students' efforts in creating informative charts and conducting interactive sessions were well-received by the hospital staff and visitors. This experience not only enhanced the students' understanding of public health issues but also emphasized the role of healthcare professionals in educating the community.

The event highlighted the importance of continued public health education and the need for such initiatives to be regularly conducted. By participating in this event, the students gained valuable skills in health communication and community outreach, which are essential in their future careers as healthcare providers.

Event Report

5th June 2023, Hansaba College of Engineering and Technology, under Gokul Global University, organized International Environment Day. International Environment Day was established by the United Nations in 1974 to raise awareness about environmental issues and inspire global action. The day highlights the need for sustainable environmental management and the protection of ecosystems. Each year, the celebration is hosted by different countries, and a specific theme is chosen to focus attention on particular environmental concerns. Total of 48 students participated in this event.

The theme for 2023, "Restore Our Earth," focuses on natural ecosystem restoration. It encourages efforts to repair damaged ecosystems by planting trees, cleaning up rivers and oceans, and restoring wildlife habitats. The goal is to reverse the negative effects of pollution, deforestation, and over-exploitation of natural resources.
